

MOTIVATED, COLLEGE-BOUND STUDENTS CAN EARN COLLEGE CREDIT WHILE STILL IN HIGH SCHOOL WITH DUAL ENROLLMENT AT MECC

Save money and lighten your course load by attending college while still in high school. Students have the opportunity to take courses that may not be offered at their high school and they can get a taste of what college-level studies are like.

Dual enrollment students pay no more than 20% of college tuition and fees. Students may take a few special interest courses or enroll full-time in a degree or certificate program.

Attend College WHILE IN HIGH SCHOOL!

DUAL ENROLLMENT @ MECC

Who Qualifies?

Qualifying students must have performed satisfactorily on the MECC's college placement test, SAT, or ACT. Students must also obtain the high school's permission and complete a dual enrollment application to enroll. A secondary student below the age of 14 or high school freshman level may apply to the college for special consideration for dual enrollment admittance and must participate in a required college interview with his/her parent.

"I took several dual enrollment courses in high school. Dual enrollment classes teach students what to expect when they get to college. Without them, I know I wouldn't have been as prepared for college."

-Abby Leonard

"Dual enrollment classes at MECC helped me get a head start on my college education and better transition into college. I was able to finish my four-year degree in only three years."

-Andrew Hamilton
